

You should know

Becky Abrams

UJF photo

Ira Gordon presented the Ira and Nanette Gordon Professional Achievement Award to Becky Abrams on May 7. Becky was recognized for her hard work and efforts in her professional capacity as director of the Squirrel Hill Food Pantry as well as for her volunteerism with organizations such as the United Jewish Federation and Hadassah. Many Jewish communal professionals, family and friends were on hand to celebrate with Becky. Pictured are her daughters, Sadie, on left, and Ella, Becky, Ira Gordon and Becky's husband, Seth.